

RANKING TAYLOR SWIFT'S MIDNIGHTS ALBBUM

(10 days after listening)

KARMA

This song is the superior song on this album. if you know why, then you know. If you don't, you don't.

ANTI-HERO

This song has the best message off of any song on the album, and shas a great beat. This is why it ranked so high for me.

VIGILANTE S

This song is incredibly BADA and I am so here for this version of Taylor. It shows that shes over the haters.

MIDNIGHT RAIN

This song has grown on me. I originally ranked it lower, but the sound and meaning behind this song gained it it's spot.

LAVENDER HAZE

The message behind this song is very admirable for Taylor to have written, and it sounds great.

MAROON

I absolutely love this song. It is perfection. The only reason I didn't rank it higher is because I have to be in the right mood to listen to it.

BEJEWELED

I ranked this higher than I originally did because I loved the music video for this song, as well as the sound effects.

LABYRINTH

I really like this song. I think it is very deep and emotional. It did go down a few spots because other songs grew on me more.

MASTERMIND

I think that this song is almost humorous. when listening to the song, it really tells aa story, but the sound is not my favorite off the album.

YOU'RE ON YOUR OWN KID

I love the message behind this song, but it ranks lower because it makes me sad sometimes.

QUESTION...?

My favorite part of this song is when the crowd cheers. I like the chorus, but it isn't my favorite off the album

SNOW ON THE BEACH FT. LANA DEL REY

I love the line in this song that says "weird but fing beautiful," but I don't love the lyrics as much as other songs.

SWEET NOTHING

Don't get me wrong, I still love this song, but it ranked lowest due to the fact that it didn't "pop" out at me when I first listened to the album.
